

George Washington to Thomas Jefferson, December 14, 1791, from Thomas Jefferson and the National Capital.
Edited by Saul K. Padover.

Washington to Jefferson WASHINGTON TO JEFFERSON

Philadelphia, December 14, 1791.

Dear Sir:

I am very glad to find that matters, after all that has happened, stand so well between the Comrs. and Majr. L'Enfant. I am sorry, however, to hear that the work is not in a more progressive State.

Yesterday afternoon I wrote a letter, of which the enclosed is the copy to Majr. L'Enfant. and receivg. his of the 10th. added the Postscript thereto. I hope the two will have a good effect. I am etc.

[P. 445, WRITINGS OF WASHINGTON, Fitzpatrick, Vol, 31.]